Double-check Your Student's AP Exam Order through AP Classroom

If you are a parent of a Wahlert student currently enrolled in an AP class this semester - your student's AP Classroom was updated with the AP exams they are enrolled in and scheduled to take in May. More information on registration and payment for this AP exam is to come.

Under the guidance of their AP teacher, your student has been asked to log in to their AP Classroom to ensure that the exams they are registered for are correct. Please take a moment with your student this week to also log into their AP Classroom with them to ensure that their AP exams are listed correctly on their dashboard.

You can do so by having your student log on to their AP Classroom and following the steps below...

1. Ask your student to log on to their AP classroom at myap.collegeboard.org.
2. Under the blue "AP Classroom" header, confirm that each AP class your student is enrolled in has an exam date showcased in the right column. If you do not see this for an exam you know you paid for/your student plans to take, please contact dlensen@holyfamilydbq.org right away.

If you see any discrepancies in the exams listed online for your student, please email dlensen@holyfamilydbq.org, or contact Wahlert Catholic High School's Guidance Department directly at (563) 583-9771, as soon as possible.
