Tricky Letters Camp

"Sh! It's a Secret" Did you ever notice those tricky letters that are naughty and sometimes forget to follow the rules? Come and learn about "cracking the code" – the secrets hidden in the words that we read and write! Kids from incoming grades 2–3 will have a blast using multi-sensory learning – including acting out funny stories (complete with crazy costumes), playing various games, and putting on their detective hats to closely examine the Secret Stories. Secret Stories are tools that kids can use to read and write words when letters don't make the sounds we expect. Help yourself become a better reader and writer with stories like the letters in love (au and aw), the crazy drivers (ir, er, ur), the superhero vowels (A, E, I, O, U), and naughty letters like t and h who should NEVER be together but OFTEN are, and many more! Come laugh, learn, and have fun!
